

Brazilian Elodea

Egeria densa

Hydrocharitaceae, the waterweed family

Category: EDRR

Leaves:

- Plants larger and leafier than hydrilla and common elodea
- Whorls 3 to 6
- Linear to oblong shape, 1 to 1 1/4 inches long and 5 mm wide
- Leaf margins are finely toothed
- Leaf midribs are smooth and without teeth

<http://www.explorebiodiversity.com>

Flowers:

- 3 white petals and 3 green sepals
- Individual flowers showy, with petals that are approximately 1/3 inch long
- Flowers at the water surface from flower stalks (1 to 4 inches long)

Photo: Ann Murry
Copyright: Centre for Aquatic and Invasive Plants,
University of Florida,
Gainesville